

I voted for this no call list, so did many people of this state. Now you are planning to take my vote away from me. Every state should have their own say on what they want. Federal Gov., stay out of my house.